

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr.rer.nat. Dipl.-Ing. JOHANN GWEHENBERGER

Born 1960 in Schwarzach, Austria.

Education, Academic Degrees

- 1984 master degree for vehicle mechanics
- From 1989 to 1993 he studied Physics at Munich University of Applied Science.
- In 1998 he obtained his doctor degree at Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg on the topic "claim potential of accidents involving tanker trucks carrying dangerous goods."

Career

- From 1994 to 1999 responsible for risk management at DBV- Winterthur Insurance in Munich, especially for motor fleets.
- From 1999 to June 2004 head of department truck safety and co-ordinator for vehicle safety and accidentology at GDV Institute for Vehicle Safety.
- Since July 2004 head of the department "Accident Research and Loss Prevention" at Allianz Center for Technology.

Research, Lecture

- Workpackage and task leader in several European Projects relating traffic and vehicle safety.
- Since 2003 regularly evaluator and reviewer of European Research Project on behalf of the European Commission.
- Since 1998 he has a lecture at Munich University of Applied Science and since 2007 at University of Graz relating accident research, technical risk management and vehicle repair research.